COLORADO Republican convention to-morrow. The Grant men feel confident of their ability to send six delegates solid for the silent man.

WHENEVER you hear a man complaining about Illinois' solid delegation, refer him to the precedent set by the conventions in Kansas and West Virginia.

Now let the Republicans quit fighting among themselves, and turn their attention to the Democratic party, which is the concern that we have got to whip on the second day of next November. Let's begin to get our hand in.

MR. CHARLES B. FARWELL has issued a pronouncement to the Republicans of Illinois, which we publish in another column. In his pronouncement Mr. Farwell grows exceedingly eloquent, but, strange to say, he proposes no remedy for the evils of which he complains. The matter bears on its face evidence of the fact that it is nothing more than a cunningly devised plan of Mr. Farwell to let himself down easy, a good deal like the lawyer's motion for a new trial, which he knows the court will not grant, but which will tend to convince his client that his interests are jealously guarded. Mr. Farwell is too old a politician to raise the arm of rebellion against the decision of a properly constituted convention. While at Springfield Mr. Farwell's pet remark with reference to the Cook county trouble was, "The people had nothing to do with it—it was a scramble among the politicians, and we out-scrambled them." According to Mr. Farwell's pronouncement his side of the Cook county muss got "out-scrambled" at Springfield, and now he is doing what he thought was so wrong in the Palmer House party—"squealing." But our prediction is that it will not last long; he will get tired of it very soon and fall in with the balance of the boys, doing his best to achieve a glorious victory for the whole ticket in November.

THE Selma (Ala.) Dispatch says: "Alabama will lead off on the roll call at Chicago with twenty votes for Grant. It is a political phrase common throughout the state in intelligent circles of both political parties, that 'Grant carried this state once, and he is the only Republican candidate who can do it again.' His character commands the respect of many, the fears of few and hate of none. If he is nominated and elected, the bulldozer and Bourbon will no longer disturb the republic."

UNDER the new law sworn statements are now required to be made by all property owners of the exact amount of property owned by them when the town assessor makes his annual assessments. This is the first assessment under the new law, and property owners should be governed accordingly, thereby saving all trouble, which in the future might arise from such neglect.

THE Wisconsin democratic platform as far as it enunciates political principles, is a purely republican document. It declares that "the United States is a Nation," and that "the national government is clothed with sovereign and supreme powers." It denounces the "policy of secession," and pledges the public faith anew to the payment of the national debt, and declares that "all debts, obligations or claims of any kind, including claims for pensions or war damages by parties engaged in war to defend the union, have no shadow of legal or moral obligation upon the government, and therefore should be rejected." But Tilden's wound is salved by a denunciation of the "Great Fraud," while encouragement is given to the "Lost Cause" by a slap at soldiers at the polls.

Labaree says there is little difference between the cross-section of a penny and a politician who wants a place.

Women Who Want to Vote.

A mass meeting of all women who want to vote will be held at Farwell Hall, 145 Madison street, between Clark and LaSalle streets, Chicago, Ill., Wednesday, June 2, 1890, at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m. Every woman in the United States who sees or hears of this call is most earnestly invited to be present at this meeting. If it is impossible she is urged to send a letter or postal, with her name and wish expressed in her briefest and strongest manner, addressed to Elizabeth Cady Stanton, President N. W. S. A., care 476 West Lake street, Chicago.

Letters or postals certain to reach Chicago on June 2 can be addressed Farwell Hall.

Let us receive at least 20,000 postals, and let them be sent in ample time to reach our meeting in Farwell Hall in season. The best speakers in the United States will be present. Our delegates will proceed from this meeting to the republican nominating convention, to present our demand for their insertion of the following plank:

Resolved, That the right of suffrage inhere in the citizen of the United States, and we pledge ourselves to secure protection in the exercise of this right to all citizens, irrespective of sex, by an amendment to the national constitution.

Let us meet together, and by overwhelming force of numbers show our earnestness and our determination to secure for ourselves the acknowledged right of self-government.

SUBAN B. ANTHONY,
Vice Pres. at Large N. W. S. A.;
MATILDA JOSELYN GAGE,
Chairman Ex. Com. N. W. S. A.

All parties friendly to woman's demands are requested to copy this call. Women are everywhere urged to give it a wide circulation.

THE Farwell Hall delegation to the State Republican Convention made one grand mistake upon their arrival in Springfield. Hardly had they landed from the cars before the cry was heard resounding through the streets of Springfield, that they would have the whole delegation or hold the convention and set up a side show of their own. Now the average Chicago political bummer may be a terror to well disposed people in Chicago, but when they come to get out upon the prairies among the hardy sons of toil, mere windy threats don't count much in the way of scaring people, and does excite contempt for those who indulge in such bosh. The country people don't scare worth a cent, nor do they believe in political bulldozing. The moment the Farwell Hall delegates commenced making threats they sealed their own doom as far as their admission to the convention was concerned. The next time that Cook county gets into a muddle at home, it must drop the swagger of the bully when it sends men out in the rural districts, if it hopes to win.—Bloomington Leader.

AGAIN the people of this state have a fair opportunity to judge of the fairness and truthfulness of the Chicago Tribune as a newspaper. For weeks past it has been publishing what it claimed was a correct statement of the preferences of the delegates to the Illinois state convention upon the presidential question. It has insisted that Blaine had a majority and that the anti-Grant men would have control of the convention, yet the result shows that General Grant had a clear majority of the convention, even admitting the 92 anti-Grant delegates from Cook county. Now, the Tribune either did not know what it was talking about and hence its information was unreliable, or it has deliberately palmed off upon its readers what it knew to be a lie. If its figures regarding the preferences of the delegates to the national convention are no more reliable than were its figures in regard to the state delegates, not much dependence ought to be placed upon them.—Bloomington Leader.

DEMOCRAT to anti-third-term republican—"See here, my good radical friend, you may as well be getting ready to eat crow. The machine is going to force Grant and the old crowd down your throat; mark my words."

Republican—"Well, I shan't relish it much; but it will be some satisfaction to see the democrats who jeer at us feeding on turkey buzzard, for Sam Tilden is the candidate you 'reformers' will have to swallow if Grant is nominated, and don't you forget it."

PEORIA, Ill., May 23.—A curious case of probable murder has come to light. August Faulhaber and Charles Koch were workingmen in Gipp's brewery, and roomed together in the Pacific House. They retired as usual late last night, but in a little while both got up, one going out the front way to the street, and the other entering the yard by the rear. Shortly after Faulhaber returned and then went out the back way. Coming in he reported that Koch was badly hurt, having fallen down stairs at the brewery. The inmates of the hotel picked up the injured man and removed him to one side of the yard, while Faulhaber left, saying he was going for a physician. No medical assistance arrived, and in a short time the man was dead. Faulhaber did not return to the hotel, but was found at the brewery later in the day. As soon as the man died the hotel-keeper dumped him in one corner of the lot, and the police received no notice of the bloody affair until this morning. At the inquest it transpired that Koch was kicked to death. Faulhaber was arrested and lodged in the police station, charged with murder. Other arrests will probably be made. Altogether, it is one of the strangest incidents that has transpired here for some time.

GALENA, Ill., May 23.—The Galea Gazette, whose editor is a personal friend of Gen. Grant, and who knows whereof he speaks, will publish the following to-morrow:

"An item has been going the rounds of the press asserting that George W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, had stated that Gen. Grant would either resign or withdraw from the contest at the National Convention at Chicago. Neither George W. Childs nor any one else had authority for making such an assertion. Gen. Grant's name has never gone before the public as a candidate for the Presidency by any word or act of his own, and he most certainly will not order his name withdrawn. A very large class of the American people have chosen to make him their candidate, and if the Republican National Convention at Chicago sees fit to tender him the nomination he will not decline it. This we know to be a fact, and we publish it because it is well that the Republicans of the country should cease to hold the matter in doubt."

WASHINGTON, May 22.—In the senate the president presented the secretary of the treasury's answer to the resolution regarding the method of revenue service in subtracting, are, on foreign sugars imported in boxes, 14 per cent. is allowed in such cases, but importers may insist on the actual rate.

Bills were passed extending the northern boundary of Nebraska so as to include the present territory of Dakota south of the forty-third parallel, east of Keyapade river and west of the main channel of the Missouri river, when Indian tribes be extinguished.

After a few unimportant bills were passed, Mr. Morgan supported his joint rule for counting electoral votes.

Mr. Morgan argued for harmony. Let the two houses meet as judges.

Mr. Conkling said the present bill amounted to nothing.

Mr. Morgan intimated that the republicans opposed the resolution from desire to have the president control the count indirectly.

Mr. Conkling humorously assured Mr. Morgan and Mr. Thurman, who were making side remarks, that their prospects for the presidency were dissolving, from the view that the president would be elected by the people next time, and, therefore, he looked upon this legislation with much greater pleasure than he otherwise would.

Mr. Morgan said five years ago guns were said to have been put in position to bear upon this capitol, to control the counting of the electoral votes.

Mr. Conkling said he had never heard that, and declared that it was vapory talk. This resolution was merely a temporary expedient.

Mr. Conkling expressed the hope that Thurman would be the democratic candidate for the presidency. The count contemplated by this measure was to be made by these two houses, both democratic, but the movers were aware the next houses might be both republican, and were resolved only to make sure of the present opportunity as a temporary thing. It should be a law and not a joint rule which should regulate the question.

Mr. Morgan said O. P. Morton favored this rule and had proposed it as a law, but instead the two houses had adopted the twenty-second joint rule and had three counts under it, and they abrogated the rule when they saw one house would be democratic. He affirmed that the republicans were determined to quarrel with any rule whatever. The democrats had done their duty and would submit to the approval of the people. He alluded to the threat of Mr. Conkling that New York, which he said, went and came like a locomotive at the bid of her manager (Conkling), would cast her vote in an unusual way, and said New York was dreading all over this land.

Adjourned.

In the House there was much confusion of the consideration of public building bills, and when a motion to go into committee of the whole was made, the point of "no quorum" was raised. Finally the House decided, by a vote of 146 to 49, to go into committee of the whole, and Mr. Rugg moved to reconsider, which was tabled. The House then considered in committee of the whole the reports from the committee on public buildings.

Mr. Cook, from the committee on public buildings, said that his committee had 90 bills for public buildings, involving an appropriation of thirteen millions, and had reported 46 involving six millions. There was considerable discussion about the economy of the renting of the buildings for government use. The committee arose after finding it impossible to transact any business, on account of no quorum voting. After some filibustering, the purpose of which was not apparent, they adjourned.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—It is now considered in political circles here that the Republican Presidential battle is virtually over and what is to be made must be done in the convention. That Grant is ahead is a matter of universal acknowledgment, and that his nomination is almost a certainty is quite generally conceded. The following are the figures of Cameron, Carpenter, Conkling, Logan and Keogh, in regard to Grant's strength on the first ballot: Massachusetts 2, Connecticut 3, New York 7, Pennsylvania 55, New Jersey 4, Maryland 14, Indiana 2, Illinois 42, Missouri 30, Arkansas 12, Virginia 22, North Carolina 12, South Carolina 14, Florida 8, Georgia 13, Alabama 20, Tennessee 18, Texas 16, Mississippi 6, Louisiana 8, Kentucky 21, Nebraska 1, Territories 8, making in all 110. These figures they stand by and declare them to be authentic.

There are the strongest possible reasons for believing that a combination has been arranged for Sherman to take the second place on the ticket in case he can not win the Presidential heat. Both parties deny any knowledge of a coalition, but from many circumstantial evidences it looks as though there was such a slate fixed. One thing is sure: Blaine cannot win, for the Grant and Sherman men are sufficiently congenial to unite at any time against him and crush him, and this will be done if it is found necessary.

CHICAGO, May 22.—The following card from Hon. C. B. Farwell will be published to-morrow:

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 21.

By the personal and desperate exertions of Senator Logan, of the commissioner of internal revenue and his collectors, by the disgraceful interference of national officials in the primaries and county conventions, Gen. Grant has apparently carried Illinois by the contemptible majority of 75, with Cook county unrepresented. If the whole 92 delegates of Cook county had been admitted, the vote would have been 51 against Gen. Grant. If the 56 unrepresented delegates from Cook had been allowed to vote, there would have been 18 majority against Grant. The convention was packed from its organization. The chairman was ordered to recognize only certain persons. Debate was cut off and parliamentary law neglected or overruled as the exigency required. What is so meagre a majority in his own State worth to Gen. Grant? The anti-Grant districts have appointed delegates and will present them at Chicago. Logan and Garcelon stand as the political burglars of the time, and Logan's crime against liberty will, in the end, bring him no more spoil than was won by Garcelon.

OMAHA, Neb., May 22.—The strike of the employees of the Omaha Smelting Works, which has been in progress for several days, took a critical turn yesterday, caused by the arrival of over a hundred colored laborers who were engaged to take the strikers' places. The new arrivals were well armed, and a display of their weapons kept the strikers at bay. The excitement was immense. The colored men entered the works, the gates were closed, and the strikers held a meeting to deliberate what next to do. A committee was appointed to wait on the colored laborers to induce them to withdraw, which they succeeded in doing. Threats were made against the smelting works, and the militia were called out and guarded the works all last night.

Last evening the workmen held a meeting, but nothing was done, except resolving to fight to the bitter end.

This morning the situation is relatively unchanged. The governor is in consultation with leaders of the strike and demands a pledge that no more interference shall take place with the laborers brought here from abroad. The militia is still under arms awaiting orders, and the colored men brought here from Kansas (they have not yet been sent home, the strikers failing so far to furnish transportation back, as agreed yesterday). The city is quiet at this writing. A plan of action has been arranged between the managers of the smelting works and the state authorities and it is hoped that the work is over.

OMAHA, May 23.—The smelting works strike ended this afternoon. Gov. Hand, the Smelting Works Co., and a committee from the strikers held a conference to day. The company had previously offered $1.50 for nine hours' work. Common laborers (this afternoon) were offered $1.65 for ten hours' work. The company agreed to make no black list. This was accepted by the strikers all of whom go to work to-morrow morning. The government troops were ordered to leave immediately.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 23.—People are already arriving from every direction of the country to attend the national republican convention, and every hotel in the city is crowded. What in the world the thousands who are yet to come, and who have not engaged rooms in advance, are going to do nobody knows. Private houses will be thrown open to a great extent, of course, but only for persons having friends in the city, and there will still be hundreds of visitors thrown upon a cold and unfeeling city, unless they make up their minds to take a cot in one of the numerous cheap lodging houses. The Lake Front Park will probably be generally patronized, if weather permits, while a large number of visitors will be accommodated with tickets for sleeping under the viaducts and on the sidewalks.

It is impossible to say what the first-class hotels will do, but the general impression prevails that for a period of at least forty-eight hours, or rather from noon of the first day of June until noon of the third day of June, Chicago will not have any first-class hotels; they will be transformed into lodging houses, but they will not

—they can not—be included under the head of cheap lodging houses. Anything but that. For instance, for a cot on the sixth floor in the Palmer, Pacific, Sherman or Tremont, the visitors will have to pay $4, $5 or $6, according to the market value of the same. If these hotels are crowded, $1 will be charged; if they are badly crowded, $5 will be charged, and if they are badly crowded, the charge will be $6. On the lower floors, of course, the charges will be higher. In other words, the lower you are the higher you pay. It is anticipated that on the day of the Convention there will be, at the least calculation, 50,000 strangers in the city. Every man in the city is anxious to get into the Exposition building, and as every one of the visitors has made up his mind to get in, and as the amphitheater will hold only 12,000 spectators, it will be seen that some few persons are likely to be disappointed.

NEW YORK, May 22.—Within the last eight or ten days very large purchases of stock have been made by outsiders of means who do not buy on margin. One firm reports transactions of this kind which aggregate 12,000 shares, other commission firms having bought amounts ranging from 9,000 to 15,000 shares each. An active raid has been made on Western Union Telegraph and Canada Southern, the first having been sold down to 96 1/2. Now it is said that Vanderbilt let go his interest in Canada Southern stock before he went to Europe, and proposes to buy back at less than 20. This kind of story is freely circulated, hence the depression.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—There was a stormy and excited session of the M. E. conference to-day. Dr. Evans, of Colorado, moved to substitute the majority report for the minority report on the book concern, which recommended the consolidation of the two southern papers. Dr. Kynett, of Iowa, moved to table the minority report. Gillett, layman from Illinois, moved to have the vote by separate order, and was sustained after the greatest confusion, and many points of order. The ministerial vote resulted in favor of tabling Dr. Evans' report, by a vote of 131 to 95. The lay delegates opposed the tabling by a vote of 60 to 33. Two orders not concurring with the report were not tabled, and the conference adjourned.

Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., known to every one in that vicinity as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, says: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to SUTTON'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Drs. Matchett & France, physicians and druggists of the same place, say: "It is having a tremendous sale, and is giving perfect satisfaction such as nothing else has done. For Lane Back, Side or Chest, don't fail to use SUTTON'S PULMONARY. We recommend these remedies." Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner.

Those Decaturites who took in the $1.50 excursion to Peoria on Sunday, are making a big kick to-day. Passengers were taken at all towns along the road from Mattoon, and when the train pulled into Peoria there were 12 coaches, with about 800 people on board. Coming back a lot of drunken Mattoonites kicked up a row in a forward car. An eye witness says several pistol shots were fired, and there was a general fist fight all round. One man, hailing from Bunker Hill, received a pistol wound, and another was sliced in the side with a pocket-knife, while still another was injured by having a lantern smashed over his head. By and by order was restored, and the train pulled into Decatur soon after 12 o'clock, when the before mentioned Decaturites got off in a hurry, glad to get home safe, and vowing never to go to Peoria again with such a bad crowd.

A LARGE party of distinguished looking gentlemen, numbering, perhaps, 100 railroad contractors and civil engineers, of New York city, arrived in the city this afternoon from the east on a special train over the Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield railway. The party dined at the Central House, and boarded a special train on the W., St. L. & P. road for St. Louis, where they will be right royally entertained. Conductor Fred. Peabody had charge of the Wabash train, and Engineer Frank Bloom pulled the throttle of No. 170.

THE Gospel services yesterday afternoon in the waiting rooms of the Union depot were largely attended—better than on any previous Sabbath afternoon. Mr. Holland, of the Indianapolis Y. M. C. A., who was to have conducted the services yesterday, in consequence of a change in his time card, was thrown in Indianapolis, but measures will be taken to have him here next Sunday if it be possible. George Sage, assistant yardmaster of the Wabash, and an earnest worker in this field of labor, conducted the services yesterday afternoon.

It was expected that Rev. Mr. Hawes, of Grace Church, Bloomington, would preach at the First M. E. Church on Sunday, but for some unknown reason he did not arrive here Saturday evening, and the charge was left without a preacher. However, Dr. E. W. Moore occupied the pulpit at 10:30 a. m., and delivered a sound doctrinal sermon. There were no services there in the evening. Regular services next Sunday.

As by law required, the members of the grand jury have visited the county jail in a body. Subsequently this body submitted a report of their visit to Judge Smith, complimenting Sheriff Forstmyer on the neat and healthy condition of the county bastille. The sheriff is not only an active officer, but knows how to keep an attractive hotel.

EARLY this morning J. M. Stookey & Co. displayed 13 baby buggies on the sidewalk in front of their store on Merchant street. J. M. Stookey & Co. anticipate a lively trade in perambulators this spring; but why, they didn't state.

AT Mattoon, on Tuesday last, a 2 1/2 inch vein of coal was struck in the shaft being sunk in that city at a depth of 341 feet, and a little below that a vein of 14 inches thick was found. It is thought 50 feet further down a paying vein will be found.

THE members of the United Brethren church will give an enjoyable social, ice cream and strawberry festival at their church to-morrow evening, to which the public generally is cordially invited. Let everybody go.

FOR Sheriff. Capt. W. W. Foster is to-day announced as a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff. Capt. Foster is probably as well known throughout the county as any man within its bounds, having an extended business acquaintance among the people. He is a native of Ohio, in which state he resided until he was seventeen years old, when he enlisted in the 104th O. V. I., in which he served until the close of the war, participating in the battles of Fort Mitchell, the campaign against Kirby Smith in Kentucky, Danville, siege of Knoxville, second taking of Cumberland Gap, Bean Station, Buzzard Roost, Tunnel Hill, Ringgold, Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca, Kenesaw, Burnt Hickory, Dallas, Atlanta, Jonesborough, Columbia, Franklin, Nashville, Fort Anderson, Town Creek, Wilmington, Kingston, Goldsborough and Appomattox Court House. After the close of the war he came to Decatur and has resided here ever since, taking an active part in politics as an unflinching, stalwart, working Republican. He has held the office of collector of Decatur township several terms, and has acquitted himself well in that capacity. He is thoroughly competent to fill the office of sheriff, and if nominated would prove to be a strong candidate.

National Democratic Convention. The Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield Railway will sell excursion tickets to the National Convention and Miller's Exhibition at Cincinnati on the following dates: June 1st and 2d, 8th and 9th, 15th and 16th, 20th and 21st, tickets good until June 27th. Rate for the round trip, $5.00. MAY 24-d&w

An Old War Horse Still Living. There are many old war relics in the country, but we doubt if any county can boast of as great a rarity as Macon county, as given in the following brief history of "Old Monroe," a dark sorrel horse, about 14 hands high, aged 25 years, and at present owned and worked by Captain Henry Miller, Co. B 8th Ill. Vol., now a farmer living twelve miles southwest of Decatur. "Old Monroe" was captured in Tennessee in 1862, and was ridden for a time by Lieut. Col. Sheets, of the 8th Ill. regiment, afterward breveted Brig. General. The horse then passed into the possession of Captain Benj. Monroe, of Co. I, 8th regiment, whose home was then in this city, and who was formerly adjutant of the regiment. Captain Monroe rode the horse three years, and though the equine went through many battles, among which may be named the siege of Vicksburg, Champion Hills, Raymond, Jackson, Mobile, Blakely, Spanish Ford, many skirmishes and trips through Texas and Louisiana, he is to-day as strong and healthy as a horse of his age and usage can well be. Captain Miller got possession of the horse and delights in giving his interesting history. "Old Monroe" was at the soldiers' reunion held at the fair grounds last fall and was greatly admired by the old veterans. He will be shown at the reunion to be held here next October. Captain Miller has promised to bring him in. He will be furnished comfortable quarters, and have all the oats and hay he can eat.

Julius Rinehart Pardoned. At the December term of the Macon county circuit court Julius Rinehart pleaded guilty to selling intoxicating liquors in violation of law, on South Broadway, and Judge Smith fined the prisoner $150, and gave him a jail sentence of 100 days. Julius has been in jail for a period of about 90 days, but being subject to rheumatism has been suffering so much that the grand jury last week, together with a number of the prisoners' friends, signed a petition to Gov. Cullom recommending his immediate release. The petition was also signed by Judge Smith. This morning Sheriff Forstmyer received Rinehart's pardon, properly signed by Gov. Cullom and Secretary of State Harlow, and to-day the pardoned prisoner was taken to his home in the sheriff's buggy. Rinehart promises that he will never again sell liquor in violation of law, and it is to be hoped that he will keep his word. His late experience should teach him that the laws are not to be trifled with.

The P. D. & E. Railroad. Following is taken from the Mattoon Gazette of the 21st instant:

We learn that the work on the extension of the P. D. & E. Railway is being pushed forward vigorously. Grading has already been commenced at Evansville, and in a few days the work of extending the grade below Parkersburg, in this State, will be commenced. It is expected that the line will be finished and running to Evansville by the 1st of December, unless the erection of the bridge over the Wabash, at or near Grayville, causes further delay. The road also proposes changing its track in Decatur. At present they run in on the Wabash about a quarter of a mile west of the crossing of the Illinois Central. It is proposed to make a direct connection with the Illinois Central further north, so as to avoid any use of the Wabash tracks, and thereby prevent so much delay of trains at that place. The managers of the road are not satisfied with the condition of the track between Hervey City and the Illinois Central, which is maintained by the Illinois Midland. It is rough and more or less dangerous. The management has already in a few days utilizing an old grade already made a considerable portion of the way from Hervey City to Decatur, and thus have an independent track under their own control. This will not be undertaken until all other projected improvements are completed and the road running through.

Supt. of Public Instruction Slade has decided that the fact of a man being a school teacher does not exempt him from road labor.

Hon. S. R. Reed, of Monticello, is in the city attending court, and looking after his chances for the democratic nomination for congress.

Sheriff Amos Weedman, of DeWitt co., is the city to-day, as a witness in the Charles Drogen habeas corpus case, up before Judge Smith this afternoon.

Rev. Spencer Donegan, Rev. William Davis, Samuel Johnson, Jackson Palm, D. C. Bass and Lewis Homer, all of Lincoln, are in the city attending the quarterly conference of the A. M. E. Church, and called at the REPUBLICAN office this morning in company with Rev. George Winston and Rev. E. P. Moore. The quarterly conference meets at two o'clock this afternoon at the church on Cemetery st., Rev. J. B. Dawson presiding.

J. A. McIntyre, millwright, draughtsman and practical miller, who came to Decatur from Detroit last August, for the purpose of putting up D. S. Shellabarger & Co.'s $50,000 merchant mill, departed for his home this noon. Mr. McIntyre personally superintended and guided the work, which the contractor, Mr. John Webster, of Detroit, may well be proud of. It is complete and perfect in all its appointments, and with a good wheat crop this year, will more than pay for itself before next spring. The machinery put into this mill has all the latest improvements for manufacturing flour, by which the quality is improved and the quantity increased, saving 10 to 15 per cent. in power. We regret that Mr. McIntyre is going away. It is a jolly good fellow, and has made many friends in Decatur. To keep posted in Decatur matters, "Mc" has ordered the REPUBLICAN sent to his address for six months.

Forsyth Notes. Miss Adele Stommel, of Decatur, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Reel, of this place.

Peter Seebarger has his elegant new residence, just east of here, nearly completed. When finished it will be a model of beauty and convenience.

The bass singer of the Wilkinson quartette who has been giving instructions in vocal music for the past week, got struck with a flu while in our village; but we understand that he is not seriously injured and will probably recover.

Our farmers are nearly all done planting corn and have their land in excellent condition which, together with a good stand and a large acreage, promises an abundant crop and a lively time for grain dealers.

There was a social tea party at the residence of one of our leading citizens, a few evenings since. Everybody was peacefully inclined, more especially the young ladies, who did not want anything to do with a row.

"Down by the Sea." This interesting and highly pleasing drama will be presented at the M. E. Church, Friday evening, May 28, by the Forsyth Dramatic Club. The funds are to be appropriated to repairing the church. The cause is a good one and so is the play. Let everybody turn out and give them a full house. Yellow roses are the latest agony for buttonhole bouquets.
